HOMEWORK: NOUNS

English Grammar — L3 and M1 | GRH and PTO

Prepared by Miss Zidani.

General Instructions: Read each sentence carefully and complete the three exercises. Identify and classify nouns according to their types and grammatical functions. Pay attention to singular and plural forms, countable and uncountable nouns, and compound nouns.

Exercise 1: Identify and Classify the Nouns

Identify the nouns in each sentence and classify them as proper nouns, common nouns, countable nouns, uncountable nouns, concrete nouns, abstract nouns, or compound nouns. A noun may belong to more than one category.

1. Sarah works at Béjaïa University and studies employee motivation.
2. The manager received important information from the new employees.
3. The psychologist placed the report on the desk before the meeting.
4. Good communication improves teamwork and productivity.
5. The human resources department organised three interviews for the candidates.
6. Mr. Karim gave the students useful advice about their job applications.

Exercise 2: Complete the Sentences

Complete each sentence with the correct form or category of the noun in parentheses. Pay attention to singular and plural forms and countable and uncountable nouns.

1. The manager interviewed three _____ (candidate).
2. The department needs more _____ (information) about the employees.
3. Two _____ (woman) applied for the position.
4. The company bought new _____ (equipment) for the office.
5. The psychologist studied the employees' _____ (behaviour).
6. The university organised two _____ (workshop) about communication.
7. The researcher analysed several _____ (datum) from the interviews.
8. The company hired two _____ (part-time worker) last month.

Exercise 3: Functions of Nouns

Identify the bold noun in each sentence and state whether it functions as a subject, direct object, or object of a preposition.

1. The manager organised a meeting with the employees.
2. The psychologist examined the effects of stress on workers.
3. The HR officer contacted the candidate by email.
4. The report about motivation impressed the director.
5. The employees discussed the new policy during the meeting.

6. The company offered the employee a promotion.
7. The manager spoke to the consultant about recruitment.
8. The improvement in productivity surprised the team.

Submission Requirements:

- Complete all three exercises.
- Write your answers clearly and organise them by exercise number.
- Use the correct grammatical terminology.
- Check your spelling and noun forms before submitting your work.