

Reported Speech (Indirect speech)

What is reported speech?

Reported speech: is when you tell somebody else what you or person said before.

A. Reporting Statements:

- When transforming statements, check whether you have to change: pronouns, tense, place and time expression.

1- Pronouns: In reported speech, you often have to change the pronoun depending on who says what .Example: She says, “My dad likes roast chicken.” – She says that her dad likes roast chicken.

2- Tenses: a. If the sentence starts in the present; there is no backshift of tenses in reported speech.

B. If the sentence starts in the past; there is often backshift of tenses in reported speech.

No backshift: Do not change the tense if the introductory clause is in a present tense (e. g. He says). Example: He says, “I write poems.” – He says that he writes poems.

Backshift: You must change the tense if the introductory clause is in a past tense (e. g. He said). Example: He said, “I am rich.” – He said that he was rich.

Examples of the main changes in tense:
