

All the best

Activity four: In which situation do we use these clauses?

- 1) Glad to see you when we meet someone for the first time
- 2) Very honored to know you when we meet someone who's new to us
- 3) I was looking forwards to meet you when we met my friend. That we know each other in person
- 4) Let me introduce myself. To introduce myself to lots of people
- 5) My name is when I introduce myself to just one person

Activity five: What do these clauses mean?

- 1) Sky is up. I'm not good
- 2) What's up? How are you? / What do you do?
- 3) I have never been better. I'm fantastic / very happy
- 4) I have seen better days. I'm not good
- 5) I can't complain. I'm stuck in between

Activity six: What do these sentences express (advice, obligation, permission, probability, ability, possibility or prohibition)?

- 1) You mustn't smoke in this area. prohibition
- 2) Cats can't fly. possibility
- 3) May I leave now? permission
- 4) She may be late. probability
- 5) You must remain quiet. obligation
- 6) He can't dance Hip Hop. ability
- 7) You should go to see a dentist. advice

Activity seven: complete this paragraph with these verbs using the past simple (go, have, want, meet, help, come)

Madonna said: "I went to New York, I had a dream, I wanted to be a big star. I met a lot of people who helped me but I also worked very hard and my dream came true."

Second term English exam

Full name: Group:

Activity one: Put the verbs in the correct form.

1) My father never drink beer (drink).

2) In Britain school begin at 9:00 (begin) and finish at 4:00 (finish).

3) When water boil (boil), it change into steam (change).

4) It always rains in this area (rain).

5) I am sorry, I forget (not remember) your address.

6) They hate spicy food (hate).

Activity two: Are these sentences true or false.

1) How often does James write to his parents? Three.

2) The earth is turning round the sun. False.

3) You are seeming tired. False.

4) I am sometimes going to work by bus. False.

Activity three: Use for or since.

1) for a week.

2) since 5 o'clock.

3) since 1999.

4) for a long time.