

lecture 02 : Definitions

- Social Education : it is also called special needs education . the education of children who differ socially , mentally , or physically from the average to such an extent that they required notification of usual school practice.

- Group and individual psychotherapy: It is informed and intentional application of clinical methods and interpersonal stances derived from established psychological principles , for assisting people to modify their behaving , cognitions personal characteristics in directions that the participants clean desirable?

- learning difficulties support: Learning difficulty or learning disability .there is no single interpretation or consensual definition of the butt terms.

learning difficulty :any learning or emotional problem that effects on substantially affects , a person's ability to learn , get alones with offers and follow convention .

- learning disability :
A significant , lifelong condition that starts before adult hood , affect development and leads to help beans required to :
 - understand information
 - learn skills
 - cope independently

Is a condition in the brain that causes difficulties comprehending or processing information and can be caused by several different factors.

- Behavioral therapy : is an umbrella term for types of therapy that treat mental health disorders.
This form of therapy deals to identify and help changes potentially scoff destructive or unhealthy behaviors.
It functions on the idea that all behaving learned and that unhealthy behaviors can be changed.