

EXPRESSING OPINION, AGREEMENT AND DISAGREEMENT

Sooner or later you will get the urge to agree or disagree with something that is being said in English. Offering an opinion can be difficult when it is not in your first language. You may know exactly what you want to say in your native tongue, but are unsure of how to express your views in English. You may also worry that your words will not come out properly or that you might hurt someone's feelings by being too forward. Although it is easier to sit back and say nothing at all, you will become bored or frustrated if all you can do is nod your head yes or shake your head no, especially if you have a strong opinion about something. The best thing to do is to learn and practice some common expressions that are used in formal discussions and debates. For example, there is a difference between agreeing strongly or only slightly.

Asking for opinion:

- |                              |  |
|------------------------------|--|
| -What's your idea?           | -Do you have anything to say about this? |
| -How do you feel about that? | -What are your thoughts on all of this?  |
| -What do you think?          | -Do you agree?    -Wouldn't you say?     |

Expressing opinion:

| -I see what you are getting at....         | -I see exactly what you mean....           |
| -I'd go along with that view to a point... | -Sure, that's one way of looking at it.... |
| -I'd go along with that....                | -I have to side with you on this one....   |

- I second that....

- There is no way I could agree with that....
- We don't seem to be in complete agreement....
- I see what you are getting at, but....
- I completely disagree....
- Umm, I'm not sure about that....
- I don't really agree with that idea....
- I wouldn't quite put it that way myself....
- That's out of question....
- I find that very difficult to accept....
- That's not always true....
- I don't think so....
- We don't seem to agree here....

Expressing interruption:

- Sorry to interrupt, but....
- Is it ok if I jump in for a moment....
- Excuse me for a second, but....
- May I say something here....
- Before you move on, I'd like to say something....
- (after accidentally interrupting someone) Sorry, go ahead. OR Sorry, you were saying...
- (after being interrupted) Sorry, but can you let me finish....
- (after being interrupted) Let me finish what I have to say first....
- Wait a minute....
- Do you mind if I add something....
- I don't mean to intrude, but....
- Sorry to cut you off, but....
- Just a moment, I like to add something here....
